Dear ISAK Sunday School Families,

Welcome back to the new 2018-2019 ISAK Sunday school year! We hope you have enjoyed your summer and had a chance to relax before getting back to school! We look forward to seeing our returning families, and a warm welcome to all of our new students and families.

Our cooperation together as a school and family this past year brought progress on many fronts. As we start a new school year 2018-2019 we promise you and the students that this will be a great year full of engaging lessons, and meaningful work in the classrooms. We dedicate our time and effort to assure you that your child will be in the best hands Inshallah.

We look forward to a positive, fun, and educational year together. For us to accomplish our goals, we strongly encourage each and every one of you to be actively engaged in your child's progress. This includes helping your child with homework, projects, and studying as much as possible. For the past two years we have been communicating with parents through WhatsApp, with each class having its own group. It was a successful method for communication, posting what each class covered as well as their home works. With that being said, we anticipate to keep using it as our main source of communication way with our families.

Attending Sunday school once a week can be a challenge if cooperation/collaboration is not followed. Please work with your child as much as you can, to make sure that he/she understands the required material being taught.

One important thing to remember is that your child's attendance is an important factor while attending Sunday school. It is understood there are times when students are late or absent. Please notify us if your child will be late or absent.

We are blessed to have such a talented and dedicated group of teachers in our Sunday School, together we will work to make this school year another successful year for our students.

Again, we welcome you to ISAK Sunday school, and we look forward to meeting you all. As well as having a successful, engaging and fun school year!

Sincerely,
ISAK Sunday school administration
